Sunday, May 10 Departure

Departure from USA for Toulouse

Monday, May 11 Arrival In France

Arrival in Toulouse. Welcome to France! Board private coach for transfer to Lourdes. Check into the four-star historic Hotel Gallia & Londres. Mass at the Basilica of Our Lady of the Rosary, a medieval-Byzantine style architectural gem. Dinner at the hotel.

Tuesday, May 12 Lourdes

Breakfast at the hotel. Tour of the Sanctuary of Our Lady of Lourdes which includes three basilicas. The towering Gothic style Basilica of the Immaculate Conception was built in response to Mary's request to St. Bernadette that a chapel be built in her honor. Below it was built the Basilica of Our Lady of the Rosary. Finally, the Basilica of St. Pius X was built underground to accommodate large crowds. Mass at the grotto where Our Lady spoke to Bernadette. The humble simplicity of Bernadette's life is seen at her birthplace, the mill at Boly, and at the one-time prison of Cachot, where Bernadette lived with her family during the period of the apparitions. Independent lunch followed by individual time for adoration, the Way of the Cross, confession, or going to the baths. Dinner at the hotel followed by the evening candlelight procession. Overnight at Lourdes.

Wednesday, May 13 Lourdes

Breakfast at the hotel and a free day in Lourdes. Afternoon Mass in the Basilica of Our Lady of the Rosary. Dinner at the hotel before partaking in the evening candlelight procession. Final overnight in Lourdes.

Thursday, May 14 San Sebastian

Breakfast at the hotel before departing for San Sebastian, located in the Basque Country on the border of France and Spain. Tour of this vibrant city on the Bay of Biscay, with its white sandy beach, the Playa de la Concha, and its mountainous backdrop. It is possible to attend Mass in one of the city's Renaissance or Baroque churches. Dinner and overnight at the hotel Silken Amara Plaza in San Sebastian.

Friday, May 15 Leon

Breakfast at the hotel; a short distance from San Sebastian is the Basque birthplace of St. Ignatius of Loyola. After touring the sanctuary at Loyola, the journey continues to Leon, along the route that follows the Way of St. James, the ancient pilgrimage road to Santiago de Compostela. Leon is one of Spain's most historic cities. Founded as a Roman military encampment, it was later controlled by the Goths, then the Moors. The city is noted for its Gothic Cathedral of Santa Maria de Regla. Nearby the cathedral is the 11th century Basilica of San Isidoro which houses the tomb of St. Isidore of Seville (d. 636). Mass near the tomb of St. Isidore. Dinner and overnight in Leon at the Hotel TBD.

Saturday, May 16 Arrival at Santiago De Compostela

Breakfast at the hotel and departure for Santiago de Compostela, named for the apostle St. James the Greater. Tradition holds that St. James arrived in Roman Galicia on the far north coast of the Iberian peninsula to preach the Gospel, and he returned to Judea where he was martyred. By means of divine assistance, his followers transported his body back to Galicia, to Compostela, and buried it in a nearby forest. His tomb was discovered in the 9th century, and his remains were placed in the present day cathedral (begun 11th century). Mass in the cathedral; dinner and overnight at the Hotel TBD.

Sunday, May 17 Santiago De Compostela

Breakfast at the hotel. The winding streets and inviting squares of the Old Quarter surround the Cathedral of Santiago. Its magnificent Baroque facade draws pilgrims inside; the original Romanesque interior was richly decorated through the centuries in honor of the apostle James. The Pilgrim's Mass is offered several times a day at the main altar of the cathedral. Dinner and overnight at the hotel.

Monday, May 18 Braga / Arrival In Fatima

Breakfast at the hotel; depart Santiago de Compostela for Fatima, stopping at Braga, the ancient capital of Roman Galicia. A city on the Way of St. James, Braga itself is a pilgrimage site, and is noted for its ornate architecture. Set high atop a hill, the splendid Convent of Christ (Sanctuary of Bom Jesus do Monte), dedicated to the Passion of Christ, is reached on foot by a 577 step intricate baroque stairway. Mass at the Sanctuary. Continue to Fatima; check into the Hotel Estrela de Fatima for dinner and overnight.

ITINERARY CONTINUED

Tuesday, May 19 Fatima

Breakfast at the hotel. Celebration of Holy Mass in the old church at the Fatima Sanctuary is followed by a visit to the Caphelina, the chapel built on the spot where Our Lady appeared to Lúcia dos Santos and Francisco and Jacinta Marto. The remainder of the day in Fatima includes Valinhos, the site where the Guardian Angel of Portugal appeared to the three children of Fatima. Aljustrel is where the Fatima children were born. If time permits, one may walk the Stations of the Cross along the Via Sacra in Aljustrel. Dinner at the hotel before participating in the candlelight rosary procession. Overnight in Fatima.

Wednesday, May 20 Santarem

Breakfast at the hotel. Optional Day trip to Santarem to adore the Eucharistic Miracle of Santarem, one of the most important in the history of the Church, that occurred in 1226. The miraculous host is housed in the church of St. Stephen (Church of the Miracle), built over the spot where the host bled and glowed with a brilliant light. Return to Fatima for dinner and overnight.

Thursday, May 21 Lisbon

Breakfast at the hotel and departure for Lisbon. A tour of the city of Lisbon will include Mass at the church of St. Anthony of Lisbon (who is also St. Anthony of Padua), built on the birthplace of St. Anthony. The Jeronimos Monastery is a magnificent 16th century edifice that was built for the Order of St. Jerome. The Hieronymites gave spiritual assistance to sailors who departed from nearby ports and its church contains several royal tombs. Nearby, overlooking the Tagus river, is a Moorish inspired architectural fantasy: the Belem Tower and fortress, which marked the point of arrival and embarkation for the Portuguese explorers. Dinner and overnight at the Hotel TBD.
